A visual thinker of tender thoughts

Tiny Pochi is a Vietnamese artist and illustrator. A true visual thinker, with a former background in visual communication and a passion for watercolours, she now leads dual practice in both fine art painting and illustration for children. Her paintings have been featured in collections in France and abroad. She currently lives and works in Paris.

She draws and paints mostly to express how her inner child thinks and feels about the world, how it notices beauty in details and fleeting moments. Her main medium is watercolours as she is fascinated by the fluidity and versatility of the pigments and its kinetic qualities. Over the years, she has ventured out and experimented with charcoals, pastels, Chinese paints, acrylic, oil, etc. but she always comes back to watercolours. It was her first love, and still her best love. Through her poetic paintings with a focus on light and colour, she displays an intimate, delicate and tender look at the beauty of life and nature.

PAPILLION

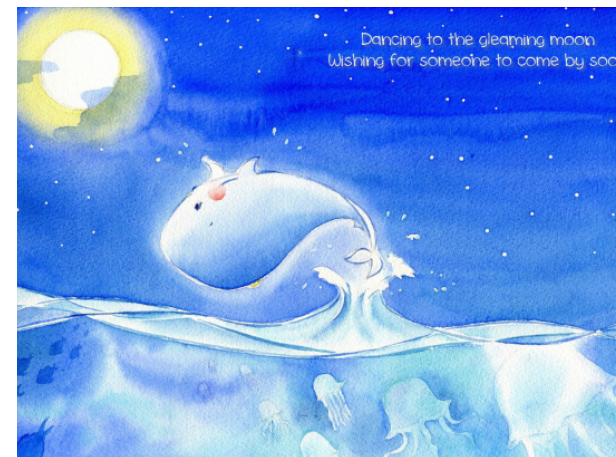

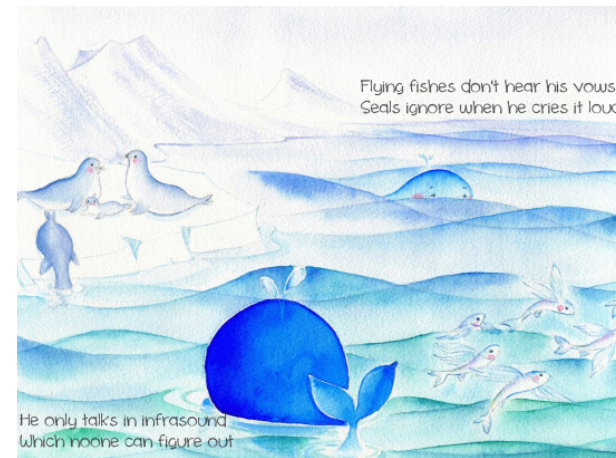

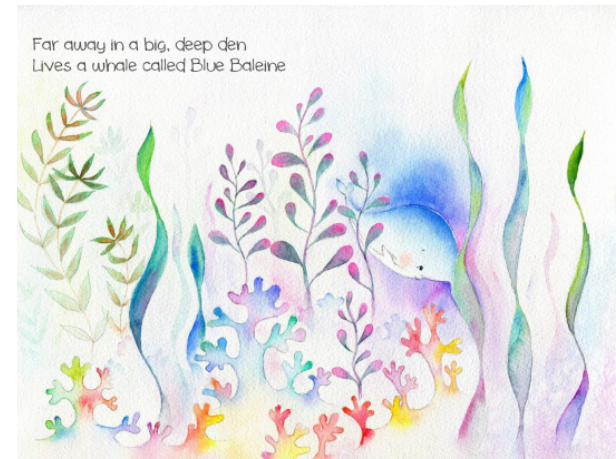

Picture book project - 2023

'Papillion' is a combined word of 2 French words - 'papillon' (butterfly) and 'lion' (same as lion in English). It is a picture book that follows an adventure, as real as it is imaginary, of a small child who forgets about his meal to chase after a butterfly, which leads to his encounter with a lion. It is inspired by a playful, imaginative and free-spirited child that I know and love.

BLUE

Picture book project
- 2015

The idea for this picture book was born on a fine autumn day in 2015. This is the work that I dedicated to 52 Hz, the lonesome whale that is forever in search for company and friendship.

SOME DAYS ARE LONELY

Picture book projet - 2013

Inspired by work of same title by Kim Young Ah and Shin Ji Soo.

A very special project that was conceived during my darkest moments, just to remind myself of holding on tight to hope and that better days are yet to come.

SLOW LIVING

Personal project - 2014

A small project I'm doing to keep myself motivated and interested in the art of slow living. Children are surprisingly wise and intuitive when it comes to enjoy real happiness.

JAMIE & AUGUST

Published children's book - 2013

My very first work that got published in 2013 by Nha Nam Publishing House. It gave me tremendous encouragement to continue pursuing the creative path.

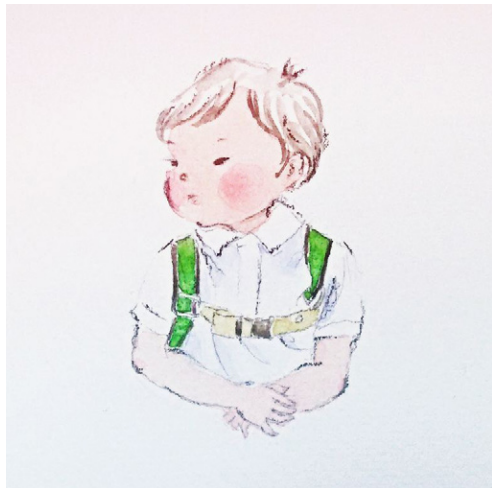

FLOWERCHILD

Calendar Project - 2022

A little project that came from a sudden thought one day, "I love flowers and children, so why not try combining the two?" So a unisex little child living among flowers was born.
